VICE MAYOR YVONNE KNAACK RE-APPOINTED TO COUNCIL POSITION

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. – Vice Mayor Yvonne Knaack has been re-appointed to serve as the vice mayor of Glendale.

The City Council selected Knaack to continue in the position at its meeting on Tuesday (January 28). The vice mayor performs the duties of the mayor during the mayor's absence. City Council guidelines require councilmembers to nominate candidates for vice mayor each year.

Knaack was first elected to the City Council in 2006 and was re-elected to a second term in 2011. She represents the Barrel District, which is located in the central part of Glendale.

Knaack has owned a business in Glendale since 1970 and has been a resident since 1984.

In addition, Knaack serves on the board of directors of the Arizona Municipal Water Users Association, representing Glendale's water interests. She is also chair of the Glendale Sustainability Subcommittee, which is working toward green initiatives for city processes.

Knaack is active in many civic organizations and currently serves on the boards of the Salvation Army, Glendale Kiwanis Club and Heart for the City.
